

ASX ANNOUNCEMENT

12 January 2026

CHRCB funding update

Charger Metals NL (ASX: CHR) ('the Company') advises that 40,570,551 partly paid shares paid to $0.04 and unpaid $0.08 in the capital of the Company (CHRCB) have now transitioned from CHRCA partly paid shares due to the payment of the $0.02 call per CHRCA. The additional $0.02 call per CHRCA will provide further cash of $811,411 (before costs) to the Company representing a 95% uptake.

There remains a total of 2,138,209 CHRCA partly paid shares paid to $0.02 and unpaid $0.10 which have been de-listed, however shareholders may pay the $0.02 Call up until 14 January 2026. The CHRCA partly paid shares not paid up will be forfeited and returned to the Company, initially to be auctioned and then dealt with by directors pursuant to the Company's constitution. The CHRCA partly paid shares for which the $0.02 call remains unpaid will be forfeited and will be available at the public auction at 10am on Friday 16 January 2026.

Charger also advises the unpaid $0.08 on 750,000 CHRCB partly paid shares have been paid and converted to fully paid shares in providing further cash of $60,000 (before costs). The CHRCB holders can elect to convert their holding into fully paid ordinary shares by paying the unpaid amount, which may potentially add a further $3,356,701 in funding to the Company.

Please contact Johnathon Busing if you have any questions regarding the CHRCA or CHRCB partly paid shares or converting the CHRCB to fully paid shares.
